

Gosbinda Vizarratea is a photographer, creative producer, and art director, born and based in Mexico, with more than a decade of professional experience between New York and Mexico. Her work is characterized by a deeply contemplative and intimate gaze, focused on the humane and the everyday, with an editorial sensibility that navigates between the documentary and the artistic, transforming simple moments into images loaded with meaning.

ARCHIVO G brings together a personal selection of images captured over ten years, forming a symbolic and emotional return to Mexico City, thus marking her return as part of the gallery's program. The series mainly includes urban scenes, landscapes, and structures, where textures, contrasts, and everyday moments reveal a discreet and poetic beauty. These images were taken in Acapulco, New York, Los Angeles, Cusco, London, Madrid, and Mexico City, reflecting the diversity of places and experiences that have marked his career.

Vizarratea's aesthetic—contemplative, sensitive, and detailed—focuses on the seemingly simple, reappraising the everyday and reframing space and time. This personal archive not only documents but also reinterprets the ordinary, offering a visual testimony of how returning home can also be an act of contemplation, healing, and belonging.
